about me

Sociable, curious and open-minded, I like to open my horizons by discovering different places around the world.
Between 2016 and 2017, I travelled six months on my own around Cuba and Mexico. Experimentations lover, I am interested by mixing different techniques in my projects and I accord a special place to geometrical forms and colors. I also use graphic design as a way to communicate about my own stories and emotions.
